If you're a leader looking for someone to inspire your team, or for a notable person to motivate your company during tough times, these highly-focused, professional women will help take things to the next level.

The list below features just some of the high-achieving women, from across the worlds of business, athletics and entertainment that will give you and your associates the tools needed to create a competitive advantage. These leaders have stayed relentless in their commitment to making a difference (digitally and virtually for now) and have found their voices needed more than ever. Many have incredible personal stories to tell, and are sure to inspire. I have ranked this list in no particular order.

#9 – Liza Pavlakos

Liza Pavlakos wasn't always the confident entrepreneur she is today. She was once a victim. As a small child, Liza became homeless after running away to escape sexual abuse. As a young adult, she endured violence and disfigurement. But, not one to be cowed by adversity, she had the guts to take on the challenge and grow and bounce back stronger. Today, Pavlakos is a successful businesswoman and a motivational speaker who helps others overcome their challenges.

She engages and inspires thousands at international events, and guides corporate teams to tap into their leadership potential and achieve their business goals. She has been featured on CNN, Channels T.V., Hello Nigeria and Qatar Airways as an inspirational speaker. She's a human rights supporter who encourages women to become successful entrepreneurs.
